Download Metal Gear Solid 5: The Phantom Pain (The Phantom Pain) (PC) APK&MOD v1.1.Q: Changing the color of the status bar on Android 4.1.1 I have read a lot of things on the interwebs and I have tried a bunch of different combinations of the following: android:statusBarColor colorPrimaryDark findViewById and setBackgroundColor But nothing is working. The reason I am asking this is because I would like to change the color of the status bar on a rooted Google Nexus running Android 4.1.1 in order to match my application's color. A: Getting the status bar color has changed in KitKat. This can be found in the documentation of the statusBarColor property. Previously, when a requestAnimationFrame() event was processed, the status bar color would be set to the color of the window background prior to the requestAnimationFrame() event. Starting in KitKat, the status bar color is set to a dark gray color. If you need to do it programmatically, you could add the following to your AndroidManifest.xml: e79caf774b
