Better Time Management - Finding the Happiness in Time Management Get Your FREE copy of Finding The Happiness in Time Management A Free Book for Finding Happiness in Your Life Do you feel like you are running out of time and it is taking a toll on your emotional state? I have struggled with this myself in the past. What happened to me, was that once I was able to get myself to take the time to accomplish the things that I really wanted to accomplish, then once I accomplished those things, I found out that I had less time to accomplish more things that I really wanted to do. Find Your Way of Happiness and then make it a part of you and build a thriving life that is full of joy, passion, and happiness. Stop thinking that you need to manage more time to accomplish more tasks and do the things you really want to do. You have limited time in your life. It's important to learn how to manage it with the things you value. You will be amazed at how much time you have. Discover how to set priorities, manage them as a workflow and find what you REALLY love to do. The biggest mistake I made was thinking I could accomplish more with the same amount of time. This book will show you how to get out of that mindset and re-align your goals. I have included strategies to help you step up your game and get all the things you love to do. Q: What is the position on calculating tip? I believe that the debate on whether one should or should not tip has been settled. But I would like to understand what is the position on calculating tip. I can see three points. Calculating tip pays no dividends and discourages tipping. If you are really rich, you do it anyway because it is fun and you can afford it. A restaurant will go broke before raising the prices if they start calculating tip. (Why would one wait for that? That means
