Hidraulica General Sotelo Solucionario, Solucionario Hidraulica General Sotelo. At National Security Advisor H.R. McMaster's briefing with reporters Monday, he held up what appeared to be a piece of paper with North Korean missile details. McMaster appeared to be referring to a brief obtained by The Daily Beast that had been circulated among U.S. and South Korean officials and was cited by Secretary of State Rex Tillerson as having first-hand information about North Korea's new intermediate range ballistic missile capabilities. "The DPRK [North Korea] does have these capabilities," McMaster said. "We assess that they are ready to use them." The piece of paper McMaster held up was a briefing PowerPoint slide showing details of the new missile, one which he continued to hold up while making his statement at the briefing. He called the new missile an ICBM. North Korea conducted a nuclear test last month, making its sixth nuclear test. "It's a very alarming situation and we're preparing for all contingencies," McMaster said. "We are prepared to defend our homeland." The Emergency Election Sale is now live! Get 30% to 60% off our most popular products today!
