are investigating the fatal shooting of a man in his home and the killing of a man outside a local restaurant. The man who died in his Morristown home, about 11 a.m. Sunday, was identified by the Morris County Prosecutor's Office as Berthold O. Welter, 56, of Mountainside. The man who was killed at about 2 p.m. Sunday, and whose identity has not been released, was said to be an employee of the restaurant where the first man was shot. Police said the first shooting occurred at the Green Wild Rose restaurant, on Morris Avenue, but have not released information about a possible relationship between the two men. Police said they have found at least two weapons used in the shootings, but have not disclosed further details. Police have not said whether the first shot was fired into the restaurant where the second shooting occurred, or if the shootings were connected.
